DynDNS Password Decryptor Portable a later date. In each instance, the district court is free to modify the award or even to order a new trial. We see no reason to hold that its power is limited by the possibility that the award may not be upheld on appeal. It is a pure question of law whether the statute of limitations has run on the claim against the insurer, and nothing in the record or in the briefs suggests that the answer is doubtful. The statute of limitations is not an absolute rule of law. Its purpose is to fix

Most of these inventions are for the use of the blind, in that they use a contact lens to enhance vision. Such inventions include U.S. Pat. No. 6,565,541 to Maugard, U.S. Pat. No. 6,547,032 to Gutsman, U.S. Pat. No. 5,566,480 to Smith and U.S. Pat. No. 5,637,510 to Welch, among others. However, while such inventions improve vision by providing a small, transparent lens on the eye, they do not provide the benefit of augmenting vision as is provided by the present invention. The need for vision Augmentation System (VAS) has been identified for many years. Some prior art patents that have been granted or pending that are directed to vision augmentation include U.S. Pat.
