The singer kicked off the 2019 event in February wearing a sheer, thigh-length dress, and was quick to show off her best bits on the weekend. After she won the 2018 title, Minogue was forced to share her crown with Tara Morrow, who also happened to be wearing a barely there leotard and a sheer top. The leotard saw the Aussie draw some comparisons with the Winter Olympic sport of curling – a sport that also has a scantily-clad rule, in which women wear just a spandex top and snow pants. RELATED: AFL grand final 2019 beauty pageant heats up RELATED: AFL grand final 2019 beauty pageant heats up The three-time Australian of the Year admitted she’s a fan of curling, and put her curling fandom to the test on the second day of the AFL, when an art exhibit was held during the 7:30pm footy match. Minogue made a cameo appearance at the event, and even came out on stage for her song Get Outta My Way. The singer’s on-stage presence was met with a standing ovation, and the whole thing seemed to be in good fun.
